PERSONAL ITEMS.

What People are Doing In and Out of Roanoke.

Capt. W. B. Bailey, of Albemarle county, has come to Roanoke to live, and is now a partner in the real estate firm of T. Kelly & Co., on Commerce street.

J. P. Pillson and J. R. Arnott were each fined $2.50 for drunkenness by Acting Mayor Hanthorn yesterday.

Miss Emma J. Breckenridge, of Grove Hill, Botetourt county, is visiting at the residence of Judge Robertson.

Mrs. Dr. J. B. Moorman, of this city, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Robert Sayers, in Wytheville.

"THE GYPSY BARON."

A Fine Opera for Next Tuesday Night by Conried's Company.

The Conried Company will present "The Gypsy Baron" at the Opera House next Tuesday night, November 18. Of the rendition of this opera by Mr. Conried's Company, the New York Herald says:

"The Gypsy Baron," last night appeared in all his bravery of silks and spangles at the Grand Opera House, and ovel, writhed and vocalized with as much energy as he did last season at the Casino. This time it was Mr. Heinrich Conried's Opera Company which presented the romantic adventures of the returned exile and his whilom Zingari bride, and it is doing them no more than justice to say that their performance was as rounded and complete as that of the artists who made the first production a success. John Strauss's music can never fail to exercise a potent charm, and last night it was the strains of the composer rather than the drolleries of the libretto which received the enthusiastic approval of the large audience. Regarded from a musical standpoint, Mr. Conried's company is superior to its predecessors.

RESULT OF A POLICE RAID.

Mattie Evans Fined $32.50 on Two Charges, But Appeals.

Mattie Evans was yesterday put on trial before Acting Mayor Hanthorn on the charges of keeping a bawdy house and selling liquor without a license.

The evidence was conclusive, but was attacked by Judge Williams and Thomas Woods, counsel for the defense, on the ground that it had been procured by the police.

Acting Mayor Hanthorn fined Mattie $2.50 on the liquor charge and $30 for keeping a bawdy house.

An appeal was noted. Chief Morris explained to a reporter after the trial that it was impossible to get evidence against these houses except by procurement. Citizens lodged complaint after complaint that their sons were being ruined in them, but did not express willingness to have their boys testify, so the police had to get the evidence in the only way possible.

Trap for the Unwary.

Passers by along Jefferson street of late have no doubt noticed the display of cheap jewelry in the windows of the small shed adjoining Frank Bros.' clothing house.

The chief attraction is a table covered with prizes with a pointer on a pivot in the centre.

The person wishing to try his luck gives this pointer a whirl and the object at which it stops becomes his property.

It is a well known fact that the game is nothing more than a trap for the unwary.

The pointer is controlled by means of a device consisting sometimes of a cord and other times by means of a button. By this means the person running the machine can run the game as he wishes.

A Times representative dropped in on the game last night. Very rarely, if ever, was a prize secured amounting to anything.

The prizes generally gotten were key rings, brass rings, cuff buttons, etc.

Dr. Lafferty's Lecture To-Night.

Dr. J. J. Lafferty's lecture at Greene Memorial Church to-night promises to be a very enjoyable affair.

Every one who has heard the doctor does not hesitate to pronounce him the most humorous speaker on the American platform of today. And those who have heard him once are most anxious to hear him again.

It is apprehended that the church will not hold the people who desire to hear the lecture; especially as the admission is fixed at the very low figure of twenty-five cents.

Tickets will be sold at the doors of the church, and doors will be opened at 7 p. m.

Philadelphians Pass Through.

A large party of Philadelphia railroad men breakfasted in the city yesterday morning. It is understood that they are contemplating the erection of large car works in this vicinity.

The party consisted of Augustus Dowdell, general eastern agent of the Gould Coupler Company; Frank D. Bright, Frank Dundore, a banker, and James Melly, of the Lebanon Car Works, Lebanon, Pa.

The gentlemen visited the Roanoke Machine Works and were loud in its praise.

ROANOKE'S BREWERY.

It Sells Twenty Barrels and Seventy-five Dozen Bottles Per Day.

Not the least of Roanoke's industries is that conducted by the Virginia Brewing Company.

Putting its first product upon the market in August of this year, it has steadily increased its product until now, when its daily shipments reach an amount equal to many breweries in old established communities.

A visit was made to the brewery yesterday by a Times reporter. In the absence of Mr. Schultz, the manager, C. L. Putzel, the bookkeeper, showed the reporter about the place, and Franz Giess, the brewer, explained to him the process of making beer and manufacturing ice.

The shipments of the company now aggregate seventy-five dozen bottles of beer per day outside of the city, and it supplies local dealers about twenty barrels of the amber fluid each day.

The company has two beer wagons and one ice wagon constantly going, and employs thirty-five men in the brewery.

From three to four tons of ice per day is now manufactured for sale through the city, but during summer months they are unable to supply the demand.

They intend, however, to increase their capacity before next summer, and will endeavor to keep up with the demand.

Recently they were called upon to make a small shipment of beer to England, and look for orders from that direction before long, relying upon the excellence of the product of their brewery to advertise their output.

NEW SCHOOL BUILDING.

Work Progressing on a House for the Northwest.

The new building that is being erected on Loudon street, in the northwest section of the city, for school purposes, is nearly ready to be roofed in.

The building is a wooden structure and will be large enough to accommodate about 300 pupils. It is expected to have the building ready for use by the first of December.

It will then be for the Council to say as to whether the city shall rent the building.

V. M. C. A. Services.

The nightly services now in progress at the Young Men's Christian Association hall continues to attract a goodly number of young men and the interest seems to be deepening.

Mr. Miller in his address to-night will draw some practical lessons from the life of Saul of Tarsus. This will be Mr. Miller's last talk for the week, so those who desire to hear him again should take note of this.

The Friday evening meeting at 8 o'clock will be conducted by Mr. S. R. Beckham, principal of the Third ward public school.

Mr. Herring's Condition.

William Herring, who was sandbagged and robbed near the market-house Sunday night, is in a very critical condition.

He received a very ugly bruise behind the right ear and it is feared that this may bring on brain fever.

He also received a rather deep cut on the top of the head, evidently from his fall at the time. The footpads have not yet been apprehended. They secured his watch and a small sum of money.

The Galley Slave Last Night.

The best performance of the week by the New York Theatre Company, was the presentation of "The Galley Slave" last night. The plot of the play is complicated and interesting throughout, and the audience gave evidence of its appreciation by frequent applause. It was not perfectly rendered, but as well as could reasonably be expected, the prices considered.

The "Pearl of Savoy" will be presented to-night. Wanted to Add to the Alarm. Just as the fire bell was ringing last night an unknown white man fired a revolver in front of one of the dives on Railroad avenue. Fortunately, no one was hurt, the shot hitting a freight car standing on the track near by. The man ran under a box car and made his escape, although the officers looked carefully for him.

A large and complete stock of these instruments can always be found at the spacious warehouses of the Hobbie Music Company, Lynchburg, Va. Each new instrument warranted five years. Catalogues free.

The Pulpit and the Stage.

Rev. F. M. Shourt, Pastor United Brethren Church, Blue Mound, Kan., says: "I feel it my duty to tell what wonders Dr. King's New Discovery has done for me. My lungs were badly diseased, and my parishioners thought I could live only a few weeks. I took five bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery and am sound and well, gaining 26 lbs. in weight."

Arthur Love, Manager Love's Funny Folks Combination, writes: "After a thorough trial and convincing evidence, I am confident Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, beats them all, and cures when everything else fails. The greatest kindness I can do to my many thousands of friends is to urge them to try it." Free trial bottles at Budwell, Christian & Barber's Drug Store. Regular sizes 50c. and $1.

Worth its Weight in Gold.

If a price can be placed on pain, "Mother's Friend" is worth its weight in gold as an alleviator. My wife suffered more in ten minutes with either of her other two children than she did altogether with her last, having previously used four bottles of "Mother's Friend." It is a blessing to any one expecting to become a mother, says a customer of mine.
